The Battle of Lepanto

In the 1560s, the Ottomans began their assault on the Christian Mediterranean and quickly conquered most of the eastern islands. If their powerful forces invaded Venice and Rome, the result would have been the end of Christian Europe. Pope St. Pius V saw the impending danger and called on the leaders of the West to unite but the request was denied. Queen Elizabeth in England was too preoccupied with her rivalry with Spain, France was an ally of the Turks and Phillip II of Spain was busy with his expansion into the New World. However Phillip II did agree to send his 24-year-old half brother, Don Juan of Austria, and dozens of ships. With volunteers from Mediterranean countries, Don Juan was able to gather together a fleet of about 208 ships—about 80 fewer than the Turkish fleet. The pope had used all of his influence to get the Christian states of Spain, Naples, Sicily, Venice, Genoa, Sardinia, Savoy, Urbino, Papal States, Germans, and Croatians to assemble under Don Juan to form the Holy League. Phillip II made one more significant donation, the first copy of the image of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Remarkably, the picture had been touched to the original image on Juan Diego's cloak. It was kept in the stateroom of the Genovese admiral as the standard for the Christian fleet. (Image hangs today in Aveto, near Genoa.) The pope was also seeking the Blessed Mother's aid so when the ships set out from Messina on September 16, 1571, he made sure that all the men onboard had rosaries.

Under the command of Lala Kara Mustafa Pasha, the Ottoman warriors had already proven strong and ruthless. When they surrounded the Christians in Cyprus and demands were not met, they flayed alive Venetian commander, Marco Antonio Bragadin, and ordered the execution of all 6,000 Christians prisoners. The beautiful St. Nicholas Church was converted into the Lala Mustafa Pasha Mosque.

On October 7, 1571, the largest and most decisive sea battle on the Mediterranean took place off the western coast of Greece. Known as the Battle of Lepanto, the Holy League battled Ali Pasha's fleet of 251 ships, 82,000 crew and thousands of Christian galley slaves who were rowing under the decks. St. Pope Pius V had called upon all of Europe to pray the Rosary for victory. Christians gathered in villages and towns to pray as the sea battle raged; and at the hour of victory the pope—who was hundreds of miles away at the Vatican—is said to have gotten up from a meeting, walked over to an open window exclaiming, "This is not a moment for business; make haste to thank God, because our fleet this moment has won a victory over the Turks." When the official news from the fleet reached Europe, the pope gave credit to the Virgin Mary by declaring October 7th Her feast day. Lepanto would be the last major battle with rowing vessels. See "Battle of Lepanto" for further details.

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

HABAKKUK 1:2-3; 2:2-4 For still the vision awaits its time; it hastens to the end -- it will not lie. If it seem slow, wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay.

2 TIMOTHY 1:6-8, 13-14 For God did not give us a spirit of timidity but a spirit of power and love and self-control.

LUKE 17:5-10 Does he thank the servant because he did what was commanded?

October is Respect Life Month

This month, it is vital that we remember that we must always protect the miracle of life with which God has blessed us from the moment of conception to the moment when He calls us from this life. On the weekend of October 19th-20th, Mary's Child Pro-Life Ministry will be planting 120 flags in the front of St. Mark's. Each flag represents one baby aborted every hour in the US. We display these flags, with Christ as our Hope, to change the hearts and minds of communities in NJ and throughout our country.

Collecting and perhaps securing the offering.

Distributing the bulletins.

October Prayer Petitions

We begin October in a beautiful way. October 1st was dedicated to St. Therese, better known as "The Little Flower" -- doubly special to me because it's my grandson Tyler's 26th birthday! You couldn't pick a better saint's day on which to be born! I had a beautiful experience of the Little Flower a few years back. I was praying to her, in the first pew in front of her statue, and after my petition, I remember thinking, "If my prayer is answered, there will be a shower of roses." Well, right at that moment I looked down and saw a ribbon sticking out from under the kneeler. I picked it up and it was part of a small bouquet of roses! It must have been left there from a bridal party. I kept that bouquet till it fell apart. I don't remember now who I was praying for, but I surely remember the response.

On October 2nd, we celebrated our guardian angels. I know mine (I call him John) has always had my back, and I when I get to heaven, I hope to have a long talk with him. I'm sure he has a great sense of humor having put up with me all these years.

October is the month of the Rosary and on the 7th, we celebrate Our Blessed Mother as Queen of the Holy Rosary. After the 11 AM Mass, we will recite the living Rosary in Her honor. Another powerful saint we celebrate on the 15th is St. Theresa of Avila, Spain. She reformed the order of the Carmelites of her time. St. Margaret Mary Alacoque follows on the 16th. She was inspired by Divine revelation to promote devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We also celebrate St. Luke, Sts. Simon and Jude to name a few this month.

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ, we have so much to pray for. We always remember St. Mark's prayer petitions. We lift up the sick and suffering, the addicted, the lonely and forsaken, all those hundreds and hundreds of petitions written in such need and with so much hope, in our prayer petition books. Let's face it, the world today needs God. We need Him for our Church, our country and the world. Never before have we faced so many crises at the same time. Only God through His Holy Mother can "fix" things. We can pray to "Mary, Untier of Knots." for one. For me lately, I've been spiritually placing the Blood of Christ on people and situations that are in dire need of renewal--it's powerful!! In any event, we know God will have the last word and we know Who that Word is. May He bless us all! Let's keep the faith!

Love, Marge

Healing from Addiction

Most people are aware of the extremely high incidence of drug and alcohol abuse in the United States today, which has resulted in a major health crisis. The number of overdoses and deaths are staggering and the effects go beyond the individual addict. But hope and recovery is possible. Once addiction is understood as a chronic disease and not a personal failing, stigma and shame can be replaced with compassion and hope. The Hope and Healing Ministry will offer a culture of acceptance and will provide information and community resources. Meetings will be held on Wednesdays at 7 PM beginning this Wednesday, October 9th, in the community room at St. Dominic Church, 250 Old Squan Rd., Brick, NJ 08724. If you have any questions, please call 732-840-1410, ext. 236.

Also at St. Dominic's, Fr. Pio Mandato will celebrate the annual healing Mass and blessing with St. Padre Pio's glove on Monday, October 14th, at 7 PM.

On Saturday, October 26th, Msgr. Gervasio, Vicar General of our Diocese of Trenton, will mark the beginning of the 2019 Traveling Torch celebration of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Patroness of the Americas, in an extraordinary commemorative Mass!

Torches will be lit and sent forth from St. Robert Bellarmine Co-Cathedral in Freehold. They will travel to the many blessed parishes of the Diocese of Trenton throughout the whole month of November.

St. Mark's will be the first parish in Monmouth County to receive
Our Lady Guadalupe Torch

SAVE THE DATES: Sunday, October 27th to November 2nd

At the end of the parish visitations, the Guadalupe Torches will all come together again in the "Walk With Us" Guadalupe Procession where the whole Diocesan community will gather and escort them home to St Mary's Cathedral in Trenton.

The torch run is a traditional Mexican religious pilgrimage that dates back more than half a century to honor Our Lady of Guadalupe. It is an event that seeks to promote, to all the community groups along its path, the peace and hope that is found in Our Lady's Son Jesus.

On this night, in the presence of our Lord in the Holy Mass, we initiate this beautiful season of Hope and Love in the Diocese of Trenton.
