Holy Inspiration Series in 2020

Coming this February: "Holy Inspiration" series, this time focusing on John of the Cross, a Spanish Mystic of the Carmelite tradition. Born in Spain in 1542, John explains: "Contemplation is nothing but a hidden, peaceful, loving inflow of God. If it is given room, it will inflame the spirit with love."

Come and learn how John describes the "Dark Night" in which we encounter God's love. There will be two discussions on Monday, February 3rd, and 10th. Morning sessions are at St. Denis at 11 AM in the school and the evening session at 7 PM in Holy Trinity Hall. We will be using the book "The Impact of God" by Iain Matthew for our discussion, a perfect "stocking stuffer" if you want to put this on your Christmas wish list (ISBN 978-0-340-61257-6). It is a beautiful distillation of John's thoughts meant to inspire you.
