The Original Flight Tracker by Joanne Gibson

Most of us are familiar with online flight trackers that follow airline travel throughout the world. Yet it was actually a much-earlier version of the tracker that became popular in the most unusual way. Back in 1955, Colonel Harry Shoup was sitting in his office at the Continental Air Defense Command in Colorado Springs (known today as North American Aerospace Defense Command or NORAD). Behind him was a clear Lucite map of North America that showed flight activity inbound and outbound over the US. On his desk was a red phone, the number to which was known only by a 4-star general at the Pentagon. The colonel was a highly-disciplined career Air Force officer. He knew that if that red phone rang, it would indicate that an attack was imminent and could well mean the beginning of a war. During this cold war period, the phone never rang until this December day. The voice on the other end was not a top general at the Pentagon but a little boy asking if the colonel was Santa Claus. Irritated at what he thought was a prank, he let the caller know he was not amused but when the child began to cry, his mother came to the phone. She explained that the number had appeared in a Sears Christmas ad for kids to call and talk to Santa. When he confirmed that the Sears ad had the hotline number (a typo), he got the child back on the line and played Santa. The hotline number was changed but the colonel kept the original number and assigned his airmen to answer calls as though they were Santa. When the colonel arrived at the command center on Christmas Eve, someone had placed a reindeer and sleigh on the map over Canada. The airmen offered to take it down but the colonel refused. Instead, he picked up the phone to call a local radio station. Identifying himself and stating he was calling from the air defense command, he told the station that an unidentified flying object had appeared on radar and that it looked remarkably like a sleigh. Radio stations were eager to join in on the fun and began calling hourly to see where Santa was, which is why, 64 years later, NORAD still tracks Santa's flights. Col. Shoup lived into his 90's. He led a remarkable Air Force career. He took his responsibilities very seriously. In fact, he always carried around a locked briefcase, contents top secret. But his family knew that inside were letters from parents who thanked him for being a "good sport" with a great sense of humor. Every Christmas Eve, 1,500 program volunteers receive more than 126,000 calls throughout the day, an average of 1.8 calls per second, from Japan, Germany, Italy and more. Turns out the spirit of Christmas that brings joy and wonder to children around the world was a much better reason for that red phone to ring.

The Epiphany of the Lord

ISAIAH 60:1-6 And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

PSALMS 72:1-2, 7-8, 10-13 May all kings fall down before him, all nations serve him!

EPHESIANS 3:2-3a, 5-6 [T]hat is, how the Gentiles are fellow heirs, members of the same body, and partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the Gospel.

MATTHEW 2:1-12 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, saying, "Where is he who has been born king of the Jews? For we have seen his star in the East, and have come to worship him."

January Prayer Petitions by Marge Loenser

Welcome to the year of Our Lord, 2020! Hard to grasp--seems like not so long ago Y2K was looming, and we were consumed with fear that our computers would stop working on Dec. 31, 1999! Now we almost wish they would, so we can catch up with all our email, gmail, junk mail, etc. So, a very happy and blessed new year to all my brothers and sisters in Christ. January starts off with the Solemnity of Mary the Mother of God. Sts. Basil and Gregory follow as great Fathers of our early church who fought against Aryanism and defended the teaching of the Trinity. Next we have St. Elizabeth Ann Seton who was our first American-born canonized saint! She founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, and the first free Catholic school in America in 1808. On the 21st, we celebrate St. Agnes from the second century.

Her name is still invoked in the canon of the Mass. In Rome, she was from a wealthy family and refused to marry as she wanted to devote her life to Jesus. Emperor Diocletian ordered her death. Listed as a virgin martyr, her emblem is a lamb.

On the 22nd, we join together to pray for life. Please join us in praying the Rosary after the 11 AM Mass. Two other great saints we celebrate this month are St. Paul and St. Thomas Aquinas. St. Paul, a persecutor of early Christians, was converted by the resurrected Jesus Himself. He became the greatest evangelist of all time, trekking through the ancient world making conversions and writing the letters we read to this day in Mass. St. Thomas Aquinas is a doctor of the Church and his theology (in Summa Theologica) has influenced the Church for centuries. I especially love him for writing the Eucharistic hymns "Tantum Ergo" and "O Salutaris Hostia."

My dear sisters and brothers, let us never forget to pray for the petitions in our petition books at St. Mark's. Lord, we lift up to You those suffering with cancer and other debilitating diseases. Please be merciful to those suffering from Alzheimer's and dementia. We pray for the caregivers who get so worn down. Hear all our prayers for our loved ones. Lord, help those addicted to drugs and alcohol, and their families. When they turn to God, He will lead them to help and support.

Well, that's it for another month. I love being with you and I pray I have shared something to inspire you, no matter how small. God bless us all, each one, and may 2020 bring us nearer to Him. Amen.

St. Paul's first letter to the Corinthians addresses many of the same topics in the news headlines today: scandals, promiscuity, debates and controversies, and issues related to prosperity versus poverty. Clearly, the struggles faced by the early Christians are in many ways similar to our own.

First Corinthians: The Church and the Christian Community explores the key elements of the gospel message that Paul introduced to a new and growing Church. Presenter Tim Gray examines Paul's advice for living an authentic Christian life in a pagan culture, as well as his teachings about the nature of grace, the Church as the body of Christ, and the most powerful gift of all—the Eucharist.

“This study has given me a renewed love of the Word, a desire to learn more, and most of all a closeness to Jesus that I have not experienced before.”
