World Mission Sunday 2024

“GO AND INVITE EVERYONE TO THE BANQUET”

The Old Testament and Gospel readings this weekend encourage us to be optimistic and confident. In them we witness how God acts when people ask for something important to them. He responds and gives them what they need!

Consider this: Jeremiah, a prophet who often comes across as sad and dark, proclaims to his hearers in the passage we just heard words of joyful reassurance and optimism.

Jeremiah's message today is one of brightness. He reassures the people who have been in brutal exile that they will come home because God has said so. This message is full of light and faith.

In the Gospel, with similar optimism but focused not on an entire nation but only a single person, Jesus does something for Bartimaeus. Bartimaeus asks Jesus for sight. Jesus quickly and completely responds by giving it to him. In this case the light surrounding the action is not just the illumination of optimistic hope, like in Jeremiah, but it is the real, true light of bodily sight.

So, we witness how decisively God responds to those who are in need.

But this applies not just to the Exiles and to Bartimaeus. It also applies to us. We want God to do things: to heal us, to forgive us, to strengthen us, to include us.

At times it may seem God responds. At other times, it may feel that he does not. When we think God does not respond it may be particularly difficult to bear because that perceived divine silence is inconsistent with what we know of God. Why would God want someone to be blind? Why would he want a people to be in exile? Well, he gave sight to Bartimaeus and he brought back the people in exile so why can he not grant what we ask of him as well?

Thank You for Supporting World Mission Sunday

On behalf of the missionary men and women serving in over 1,150 mission territories, we extend our heartfelt gratitude for your generous support on World Mission Sunday. Your contributions ensure that the Gospel continues to spread, bringing hope, love, and salvation to those in need.

This year's theme, "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," reminds us of our universal call to evangelize and support our brothers and sisters around the world. Your generosity helps build churches, train clergy, and provide essential services in mission territories. Thank you for being part of this vital mission and for making a lasting impact on the global Church.

CYO News by Mary Reilly

Congratulations to our CYO MC's, speakers, and award recipients at last Sunday's Champion for Life Dinner. Many thanks to all of our volunteers who greeted guests, sold 50-50 tickets, and helped to make this annual dinner the best ever. God bless parishioners Jim and Marianne Sheridan for their witness on behalf of life and for their support of our CYO In everything we do! Many thanks to all who attended, sponsored our youth, and took out ads in our program. God love and bless you all!

Social Concerns Programs

Feeding the Hungry

Are you looking for an easy way to help those in need? Here's one way you can make a difference. St. Mark's Social Concerns Ministry is resuming the Frozen Meals Program for the Center in Asbury Park which was discontinued due to the Covid pandemic. The Center in Asbury Park, Inc., is a volunteer-based New Jersey not-for-profit service organization, providing support services for people living with HIV/AIDS and their caregivers since 1992.

The process is simple! Here's what to do:

- Pick up food trays and lids next to the kitchen refrigerator in Fr. Child's Hall (St. Mark's Church basement)
- Fill the trays with generous portions of food
- Label the tray lids with the contents and date of preparation
- Return the meals to the freezer compartment of the refrigerator in Fr. Child's Hall.

Please use only the trays provided.

St Mark's volunteers will deliver the meals to The Center for distribution to their clients.

Please contact Marybeth or Joe Walsh at 732 449-5656 with any questions. Your participation is greatly appreciated.

Healing the Wounds of Abortion

Weekend Retreat November 15-17, 2024

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother. You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear. Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one our retreat weekends. For more information, contact Judy Warkiewicz at 732-536-6871. All inquiries are strictly confidential.
