GENEROSITY

Lectionary: 155

Reading I

1 Kgs 17:10-16

In those days, Elijah the prophet went to Zarephath. As he arrived at the entrance of the city, a widow was gathering sticks there; he called out to her, "Please bring me a small cupful of water to drink."

She left to get it, and he called out after her, "Please bring along a bit of bread." She answered, "As the LORD, your God, lives, I have nothing baked; there is only a handful of flour in my jar and a little oil in my jug."

Just now I was collecting a couple of sticks, to go in and prepare something for myself and my son; when we have eaten it, we shall die."

Elijah said to her, "Do not be afraid. Go and do as you propose. But first make me a little cake and bring it to me. Then you can prepare something for yourself and your son."

For the LORD, the God of Israel, says, 'The jar of flour shall not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, until the day when the LORD sends rain upon the earth.'"

She left and did as Elijah had said. She was able to eat for a year, and he and her son as well; the jar of flour did not go empty, nor the jug of oil run dry, as the LORD had foretold through Elijah.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

R. (1b) Praise the Lord, my soul!

or:

R. Alleluia.

The LORD keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry.

The LORD sets captives free.

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

or:

R. Alleluia.

The LORD gives sight to the blind.

The LORD raises up those who were bowed down; the LORD loves the just.

The LORD protects strangers.

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

or:

R. Alleluia.

The fatherless and the widow he sustains,
but the way of the wicked he thwarts.

The LORD shall reign forever;

your God, O Zion, through all generations. Alleluia.

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

or:

R. Alleluia.

Reading II

Heb 9:24-28

Christ did not enter into a sanctuary made by hands, a copy of the true one, but heaven itself, that he might now appear before God on our behalf.

Not that he might offer himself repeatedly, as the high priest enters each year into the sanctuary with blood that is not his own; if that were so, he would have had to suffer repeatedly from the foundation of the world.

But now once for all he has appeared at the end of the ages to take away sin by his sacrifice. Just as it is appointed that human beings die once, and after this the judgment, so also Christ, offered once to take away the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to take away sin but to bring salvation to those who eagerly await him.

Alleluia

Mt 5:3

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 12:38-44 or 12:41-44

In the course of his teaching Jesus said to the crowds, "Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets. They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers.

They will receive a very severe condemnation."

He sat down opposite the treasury and observed how the crowd put money into the treasury.

Many rich people put in large sums.

A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents.

Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury.

For they have all contributed from their surplus wealth, but she, from her poverty, has contributed all she had, her whole livelihood."

St. Mark's CYO Presents Great Stories of the Bible

St. Mark's CYO invites all parishioners and their friends to our second night of presenting the great stories of the Bible.

Please join us on Thursday, November 11, from 7-8 PM in the upstairs' Church. Our next story is about Joseph (Old Testament) and his brothers who abandoned him but later find him again and make their peace with him. His father Jacob who thought that his son was dead is reunited with him! We then move onto the Book of Exodus. CYO members will read these riveting Bible passages and Monsignor Sean will give a reflection on them. This will also be livestreamed for the homebound!!!!!!

--from a parishioner who attended last month's presentation..

"Thursday night's Bible presentation by St. Mark's CYO was illuminating. I attended apprehensively, thinking it was geared to and for teens. However, Liam the narrator quickly set the tone. He established the agenda for the night and Monsignor then gave a detailed informative explanation of the history of the Bible. Monsignor mentioned that Catholics are not as familiar with the Bible because for a time Catholics were not encouraged to read the Bible for fear that they would misinterpret what was written. Monsignor Flynn's detailed explanation along with the teens articulate readings were eye opening. How much do we understand about our religion? How much more is there to learn? What are the lessons in the Bible trying to teach us? I for one left the Bible study a little more enlightened and also eager to learn more. I encourage you to join Monsignor Flynn and St. Marks's teens because they have a lot of knowledge to share."

So everyone please give it a try. Our CYO teens have worked hard to bring this to you!

Social Concerns Meeting

Social Concerns Meeting on Tuesday, November 9th at 1:30 PM in Fr. Child's Hall.

Lunch will not be served. You are welcome to bring your own beverage.

Food Drive ends this Tuesday, November 9th

St. Mark's Social Concerns Committee will be collecting food to be donated to Mercy Center in Asbury Park.

Please note: We will not be collecting frozen turkeys. Fulfill Charity is donating the turkeys to the Mercy Center this year. Frozen pies may be placed in the large freezer in the Church basement kitchen, as well as butter and refrigerated tube biscuits.

Stovetop stuffing, instant mashed potatoes, 1lb bags of rice, gravy, canned yams, corn, peas, green beans, fruit, cranberry sauce, sugar packets, instant coffee bags and dried milk packets should be placed in the bins at the front and side entrances to the Church.

We thank you for your support and generosity.

Parish Mission Statement: We, the Parish Family of St. Mark's in our quest to follow the Gospel of Jesus Christ, are building a faith-based community that assists all people in life's journey to be open to God's love and to share His joy. We are further committed to address the spiritual, physical, emotional and social needs of all people through service to individuals, families, parish and the greater community. As responsible stewards using our individual gifts, we promise to celebrate, renew and strengthen our faith, and to live our lives as a reflection of Christ's love for others. St. Mark's is designated as a Center for Hispanic Ministry in the Diocese of Trenton.

Mary's Child Pro-Life Ministry

From Mary, Michele and Greg—MCPLM Executive Board

Many thanks to all who contributed in any way to make Respect Life Month (October) a tremendous witness for our unborn brothers and sisters!

From what we have been told, the NJRTL raffle tickets sold out at the Masses in all of our parishes.

Everyone was overwhelmingly generous and supportive of this fundraiser!

What makes us most proud is that many members of Mary's Child (of our six parishes) showed up every week for a holy hour outside Planned Parenthood to say the Rosary. Our witness was prayerful and peaceful and it has been reported that 588 babies nationwide were confirmed saved from abortion because of our being there. This does not account for those who see us there and just leave...i.e. go home and choose life for their babies. They see us praying or our sign which says CHOOSE LIFE and maybe that was just the message they needed to see to choose life for their babies.

One young man pulled his car up to us and was almost in tears and kept thanking us over and over again. We never got his story but felt that maybe we had given him his answer that day...to choose life!

Of course we were subjected to the usual curses and insults. Easy price to pay for the life of even one child!

Maria, Jim, Marianne, Carolyn, Greg, Ray, Kevin, Barbara and many others were there faithfully throughout these "40 days for life." We could not be there for Him 2000 years ago; but in our unborn brothers and sisters we found Him in those also denied, vilified, rejected and abandoned by our world. God love and bless all those who work to protect and defend life!!!!!!!!!!!!

Please mail your checks to St. Mark's Church, 215 Crescent Parkway, Sea Girt, NJ 08750 or drop off in mail slot. Thank you!

Eucharistic Devotion

The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join us on Friday's immediately after the 11 AM Mass for Adoration. Benediction begins at 1:45PM. It will also be broadcast on livestream @ stmarkseagirt.com. Come spend some quiet time with the Lord.

November Thoughts by Marge Loenser

November comes in behind a strong gust of spiritual wind. This spiritual wind reminds us that we are only sojourners on this earth; that we are headed for a much better place. November 1st is All Saints day. God's chosen elect that have gone before us living the message that Christ began when he walked this earth. They are our role models and intercessors, and we constantly turn to them for help and inspiration. November 2nd is dedicated to the souls that God called from this earth and are waiting for entrance into heaven. These souls need our prayers and we shall remember them all month long—they are our family, our friends and our colleagues that God has called from this earth. We can pray for them and they can pray for us but they cannot pray for themselves.

I want to relay this very emotional conversation I had with my daughter Charlene back in 2014. She was dying from small cell lung cancer that spread to the brain. She knew she was dying and we started talking about the afterlife. I felt prompted to read to her from Wisdom 3. This is where God tells us that the souls of the just are in His hands, and they are at peace and shall be greatly blessed because God tried them and found them worthy of himself. They shall shine and they shall dart about as sparks through stubble, they shall judge the nations and rule over people and the Lord shall be their king forever. After I read that Char said "wow that's what I want to do, judge nations." I lit up and was so grateful for her attitude and for her faith. She was only 52 when she died in January 2015. I remain very close with her husband Henry and my grandson Tyler and my granddaughter Rachael. Char lives in my heart every day.

We celebrate two Saint Martin's this month— Saint Martin of Tours and Saint Martin de Porres. Saint Martin of Tours cut his cape in two, and shared it with a poor man. Later that night in a vision, the poor man turned out to be Jesus. St. Martin DePorres was cast out by his father because he was of mixed race and his skin was dark. Martin joined the Dominicans and became a lay brother the age of 16. He spent a lot of time before the Eucharist and he was devoted to working in the infirmary. Martin died in 1639. Both Saint Martin's please pray for us.

We also celebrate Saint Andrew, one of the apostles and brother of Saint Peter. We know that he was a disciple of John the Baptist and he brought the other apostles that were fishermen to Jesus. After Pentecost he preached in Greece. He died tied to a cross shaped like an "X" because he did not feel worthy; Tied to a cross identical to that of our Lord. Saint Andrew pray for us.

We celebrate Thanksgiving November 25th. It's a good day for football and turkey but most of all for praying for the United States. Lord we put our country in your hands it was formed according to your laws and lately has drifted far from you. Forgive us Lord —bring us back to you as a nation —Your nation. One nation under God with liberty and justice for all -- born and unborn. Amen. God bless us each One.

Love,
Marge

National Vocations Awareness Week

The Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate the 45th annual National Vocation Awareness Week from November 7-13, 2021. During this week, dioceses across the United States will hold events to foster an appreciation for vocations and pray specifically for those discerning a call to ordained ministry and consecrated life.

In his message for the 58th annual World Day of Prayer for Vocations, Pope Francis offered St. Joseph, the foster father of Jesus, as a model for vocational discernment. "Amid all these upheavals, [St. Joseph] found the courage to follow God's will. So too in a vocation: God's call always urges us to take a first step, to give ourselves, to press forward. There can be no faith without risk. Only by abandoning ourselves confidently to grace, setting aside our own programmes and comforts, can we truly say "yes" to God," he said, and exhorted the Church to look to St. Joseph as an "outstanding example of acceptance of God's plans."

Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of vocation.

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.
Amen.

Trigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario
Noviembre 7, 2021

Primera Lectura: 1 Rey 17, 10-16.

En aquel tiempo, el profeta Elías se puso en camino hacia Sarepta. Al llegar a la puerta de la ciudad, encontró allí a una viuda que recogía leña. La llamó y le dijo: "Tráeme, por favor, un poco de agua para beber". Cuando ella se alejaba, el profeta le gritó: "Por favor, tráeme también un poco de pan". Ella le respondió: "Te juro por el Señor, tu Dios, que no me queda ni un pedazo de pan; tan sólo me queda un puñado de harina en la tinaja y un poco de aceite en la vasija. Ya ves que estaban recogiendo unos cuantos leños. Voy a preparar un pan para mí y para mi hijo. Nos lo comeremos y luego moriremos". Elías le dijo: "No temas. Anda y prepáralo como has dicho; pero primero haz un panecillo para mí y tráemelo. Después lo harás para ti y para tu hijo, porque así dice el Señor de Israel: 'La tinaja de harina no se vaciará, la vasija de aceite no se agotará, hasta el día en que el Señor envíe la lluvia sobre la tierra' ". Entonces ella se fue, hizo lo que el profeta le había dicho y comieron él, ella y el niño. Y tal como había dicho el Señor por medio de Elías, a partir de ese momento, ni la tinaja de harina se vació, ni la vasija de aceite se agotó.

Salmo Responsorial: Salmo 145, 7. 8-9a. 9bc-10
El Señor siempre es fiel a su palabra.

El Señor siempre es fiel a su palabra, y es quien hace justicia al oprimido; él proporciona pan a los hambrientos y libera al cautivo. R.

El Señor siempre es fiel a su palabra.

Abre el Señor los ojos de los ciegos y alivia al agobiado. Ama el Señor al hombre justo y toma al forastero a su cuidado. R.

El Señor siempre es fiel a su palabra.

A la viuda y al huérfano sustenta y trastorna los planes del inicuo.
Reina el Señor eternamente, reina tu Dios, oh Sión, reina por siglos. R.

El Señor siempre es fiel a su palabra.

Segunda Lectura: Heb 9, 24-28.

Hermanos: Cristo no entró en el santuario de la antigua alianza, construido por mano de hombres y que sólo era figura del verdadero, sino en el cielo mismo, para estar ahora en la presencia de Dios, intercediendo por nosotros. En la antigua alianza, el sumo sacerdote entraba cada año en el santuario para ofrecer una sangre que no era la suya; pero Cristo no tuvo que ofrecerse una y otra vez a sí mismo en sacrificio, porque en tal caso habría tenido que padecer muchas veces desde la creación del mundo. De hecho, él se manifestó una sola vez, en el momento culminante de la historia, para destruir el pecado con el sacrificio de sí mismo. Y así como está determinado que los hombres mueran una sola vez y que después de la muerte venga el juicio, así también Cristo se ofreció una sola vez para quitar los pecados de todos. Al final se manifestará por segunda vez, pero ya no para quitar el pecado, sino para salvación de aquellos que lo aguardan y en él tienen puesta su esperanza.

Aclamación antes del Evangelio: Mt 5, 3.

R. Aleluya, aleluya.

Dichosos los pobres de espíritu, porque de ellos es el Reino de los cielos.

R. Aleluya.

Evangelio: Mc 12, 38-44.

En aquel tiempo, enseñaba Jesús a la multitud y le decía: "¡Cuidado con los escribas! Les encanta pasearse con amplios ropajes y recibir reverencias en las calles; buscan los asientos de honor en las sinagogas y los primeros puestos en los banquetes; se echan sobre los bienes de las viudas haciendo ostentación de largos rezos. Éstos recibirán un castigo muy riguroso". En una ocasión Jesús estaba sentado frente a las alcancías del templo, mirando cómo la gente echaba allí sus monedas. Muchos ricos daban en abundancia. En esto, se acercó una viuda pobre y echó dos moneditas de muy poco valor. Llamando entonces a sus discípulos, Jesús les dijo: "Yo les aseguro que esa pobre viuda ha echado en la alcancía más que todos. Porque los demás han echado de lo que les sobraba; pero ésta, en su pobreza ha echado todo lo que tenía para vivir".
