Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 84

Reading I
Sir 27:4-7

When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear;
so do one's faults when one speaks.
As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace,
so in tribulation is the test of the just.
The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had;
so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind.
Praise no one before he speaks, for it is then that people are tested.

Responsorial Psalm
Ps 92:2-3, 13-14, 15-16

R (cf. 2a) Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.
It is good to give thanks to the LORD,
to sing praise to your name, Most High,
To proclaim your kindness at dawn
and your faithfulness throughout the night.
R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.
The just one shall flourish like the palm tree,
like a cedar of Lebanon shall he grow.
They that are planted in the house of the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God.

R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.
They shall bear fruit even in old age;
vigorous and sturdy shall they be,
Declaring how just is the LORD,
my rock, in whom there is no wrong.
R Lord, it is good to give thanks to you.

Reading II
1 Cor 15:54-58

Brothers and sisters:
When this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility
and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about:

Death is swallowed up in victory.

Where, O death, is your victory?

Where, O death, is your sting?

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Alleluia
Phil 2:15d, 16a

R. Alleluia, alleluia.
Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the word of life.
R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel
Lk 6:39-45

Jesus told his disciples a parable, "Can a blind person guide a blind person?

Will not both fall into a pit?

No disciple is superior to the teacher;
but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher.

Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own?

How can you say to your brother, "Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye," when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye?

You hypocrite! Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye.

"A good tree does not bear rotten fruit,
nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit.

For every tree is known by its own fruit.

For people do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles.

A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil;

for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks."

Eucharistic Devotion

The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join us on Friday's immediately after the 11 AM Mass for Adoration. Benediction begins at 1:45 PM. It will also be broadcast on livestream @ stmarkseagirt.com. Come spend some quiet time with the Lord.

She will be sharing with us what she learned during her 36 year career about the dangers of drugs and especially in regard to our youth. She also has her own personal story as the mother of a son who just celebrated 10 years of recovery. Hope to see everyone at our meeting!!!!!!

Healing the Wounds of Abortion

The psychological and spiritual wounds of abortion can be sharp, deep and crippling. You may feel a deep numbness and may not be able to name the pain or recognize any of the symptoms. It can also have a devastating impact on the father or grandparents of the aborted child and friend/s of the mother. You do not have to continue to hide in shame and fear. Rachel's Vineyard's Retreat is a chance to focus on this painful time in your life through a supportive non-judgmental process, in an atmosphere of confidentiality, understanding, and compassion. It is designed to help both women and men experience the mercy and compassion of God.

If you have suffered through an abortion and have isolated yourself from healing and forgiveness, you might consider attending one our retreat weekends. For more information, contact Judy Warenkiewicz at 732-536-6871. All inquiries are strictly confidential.

Mary's Child Pro Life Ministry

Mary's Child Pro Life Ministry (MCPLM) met on Thursday, February 17th and are in full Lenten—prayer and action mode. For any Catholic that means (figuratively speaking) 40 Days spent in the desert with Jesus where His total focus was on The Heavenly Father and what He was being called forth to do. For Him, as well as today in our Lenten observance, it is 40 days of vocal, meditative and contemplative prayer; fasting; penance and most challenging of all-- driving away the devil with all of his offers of power and worldly goods! In our pro-life ministry we will be following the example of Jesus with our Masses, rosaries and our Holy hours of Eucharistic adoration. And we too will be fighting off the demons that would harm our unborn brothers and sisters. Several of our MCPLM members have committed to an hour every week for six weeks praying the Rosary outside of Planned Parenthood in Shrewsbury. If you wish to join us, please contact Jim at meyerjim1953@gmail.com or Monmouth4life@hotmail.com.

At our meeting, one of our members shared with us the importance of reading the Bible and additionally recommended the Hallow app where Jim Caviezel and Jonathan Roumie will be leading everyone in prayer throughout the 40 days of Lent meditating on the seven last words of Jesus with reflections from saints, meditations from scripture, beautiful music and much more.

PURIFICADO

Octavo Domingo Ordinario
Febrero 27, 2020

Primera lectura: Sir 27, 5-8.

Al agitar el cernidor, aparecen las basuras; en la discusión aparecen los defectos del hombre. En el horno se prueba la vasija del alfarero; la prueba del hombre está en su razonamiento. El fruto muestra cómo ha sido el cultivo de un árbol; la palabra muestra la mentalidad del hombre. Nunca alabes a nadie antes de que hable, porque ésta es la prueba del hombre.

Salmo Responsorial: Del Salmo 91

¡Qué bueno es darte gracias, Señor!

¡Qué bueno es darte gracias, Dios altísimo, y celebrar tu nombre, pregonando tu amor cada mañana y tu fidelidad, todas las noches! R.

¡Qué bueno es darte gracias, Señor!

Los justos crecerán como las palmas, como los cedros en los altos montes; plantados en la casa del Señor, en medio de sus atrios darán flores.

¡Qué bueno es darte gracias, Señor!

Seguirán dando fruto en su vejez, frondosos y lozanos como jóvenes, para anunciar que en Dios, mi protector, ni maldad ni injusticia se conocen.

¡Qué bueno es darte gracias, Señor!

Segunda lectura: 1 Cor 15, 54-58.

Hermanos: Cuando nuestro ser corruptible y mortal se revista de incorruptibilidad e inmortalidad, entonces se cumplirá la palabra de la Escritura: La muerte ha sido aniquilada por la victoria. ¿Dónde está, muerte, tu victoria? ¿Dónde está, muerte, tu aguijón? El aguijón de la muerte es el pecado y la fuerza del pecado es la ley. Gracias a Dios, que nos ha dado la victoria por nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Así pues, hermanos míos muy amados, estén firmes y permanezcan constantes, trabajando siempre con fervor en la obra de Cristo, puesto que ustedes saben que sus fatigas no quedarán sin recompensa por parte del Señor.

Aclamación antes del Evangelio: Cfr Flp 2, 15. 16.

R. Aleluya, aleluya.

Iluminen al mundo con la luz del Evangelio reflejada en su vida.

R. Aleluya.

Evangelio: Lc 6, 39-45.

En aquel tiempo, Jesús propuso a sus discípulos este ejemplo: “¿Puede acaso un ciego guiar a otro ciego? ¿No caerán los dos en un hoyo? El discípulo no es superior a su maestro; pero cuando termine su aprendizaje, será como su maestro. ¿Por qué ves la paja en el ojo de tu hermano y no la viga que llevas en el tuyo? ¿Cómo te atreves a decirle a tu hermano: ‘Déjame quitarte la paja que llevas en el ojo’, si no adviertes la viga que llevas en el tuyo? ¡Hipócrita! Saca primero la viga que llevas en tu ojo y entonces podrás ver, para sacar la paja del ojo de tu hermano. No hay árbol bueno que produzca frutos malos, ni árbol malo que produzca frutos buenos. Cada árbol se conoce por sus frutos. No se recogen higos de las zarzas, ni se cortan uvas de los espinos. El hombre bueno dice cosas buenas, porque el bien está en su corazón, y el hombre malo dice cosas malas, porque el mal está en su corazón, pues la boca habla de lo que está lleno el corazón”.
