The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Lectionary: 166

Reading I

Prv 8:22-31

Thus says the wisdom of God:

"The LORD possessed me, the beginning of his ways,
the forerunner of his prodigies of long ago;

from of old I was poured forth,
at the first, before the earth.

When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no fountains or springs of water;
before the mountains were settled into place,
before the hills, I was brought forth;
while as yet the earth and fields were not made,
nor the first clods of the world.

"When the Lord established the heavens I was there,
when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep;
when he made firm the skies above,
when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth;
when he set for the sea its limit,
so that the waters should not transgress his command;
then was I beside him as his craftsman,

and I was his delight day by day,
playing before him all the while,
playing on the surface of his earth;
and I found delight in the human race."

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 8:4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R (2a) O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

When I behold your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars which you set in place

What is man that you should be mindful of him, or the son of man that you should care for him?

R O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

You have made him little less than the angels,
and crowned him with glory and honor.

You have given him rule over the works of your hands,
putting all things under his feet:

R O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

All sheep and oxen,

yes, and the beasts of the field,

The birds of the air, the fishes of the sea,

and whatever swims the paths of the seas.

R O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Reading II

Rom 5:1-5

Brothers and sisters:

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God.

Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Alleluia

Cf. Rv 1:8

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit;
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Jn 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

"I have much more to tell you, but you cannot bear it now.

But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth.

He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming.

He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you. Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

Parish Mission Statement

We, the Parish Family of St. Mark's in our quest to follow the Gospel of Jesus Christ, are building a faith-based community that assists all people in life's journey to be open to God's love and to share His joy. We are further committed to address the spiritual, physical, emotional and social needs of all people through service to individuals, families, parish and the greater community. As responsible stewards using our individual gifts, we promise to celebrate, renew and strengthen our faith, and to live our lives as a reflection of Christ's love for others. St. Mark's is designated as a Center for Hispanic Ministry in the Diocese of Trenton.

IMPORTANT DATES TO REMEMBER!

June 25/26 Second Collection is for the Holy Father's Peter's Pence.

St. Mark's Social Concerns Ministry will meet on Tuesday, June 14th at 1 pm in Father Child's Hall. New members are welcome.

St. Mark's Bereavement Ministry

Our Bereavement Ministry helps those who are grieving the loss of a loved one during their most difficult times. They meet on Wednesdays at 11 AM at St. Mark's. Please call Sue Nolan at 718-637-1162 for more information. All are welcome!

BULLETINS: Please submit all bulletin announcements by Monday before 2 PM.

Bulletin drafts are submitted to Msgr. Flynn for review. Email submissions to cindy@stmarkseagirt.com.

We are very happy to see that more people are beginning to return to Church each weekend. We can expect more visitors and vacationers to join us for Mass over the summer months. We would ask everyone to show respect for the Holy Eucharist by wearing appropriate dress to church. Jesus always showed great respect for his "Father's House" and we should do likewise.

Praise GOD who CREATES us
REDEEMS us

WORD OF LIFE

June 12, 2022

"In modern times, children in their mothers' wombs and those approaching the end of their lives are certainly among the 'least of these' in our world's estimation. Practices such as abortion and assisted suicide tragically reject the truth that human life is always to be cherished and defended with loving concern. ... Through the intercession of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may Our Lord grant us the grace to truly and courageously live his Gospel of life."

Eucharistic Devotion

The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join us on Friday's immediately after the 11 AM Mass for Adoration. Benediction begins at 1:45 PM. It will also be broadcast on livestream @ stmarkseagirt.com. Come spend some quiet time with the Lord.

Thank you to everyone who came out Sunday to our first concert. The weather was beautiful, the music was great and everyone had a good time. Thank you to all who helped serve and a special thanks to Loretta and Rich Norris for all their hard work and giving of their time on their Wedding Anniversary. Our talented Music Ministry performed beautifully.

Many thanks to Jarred Tafaro, John Heiserman, Frank Banafato, Julia Napolitano, Grace Allison and Kelly Reynolds for their hard work and dedication at the concert and weekly for leading us into worship during Mass.

Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity by Jem Sullivan

While dining out, it's not uncommon to see a group of people pulling out their mobile phones as they sit down to share a meal around the table. Even as we socialize with family and friends, our electronic devices are close at hand, in case of need. I've even seen a group of college students taking photos of their meal and sharing it with the person sitting across the table!

Human beings are social creatures. We come into this world within the first community of our immediate family, and we grow and flourish in ever expanding communities at home, school and work.

And even as electronic devices have changed the way we experience social interactions, we cannot escape this basic fact of our human existence. We are essentially social beings who exist in community from beginning to end.

This Sunday, the church invites us to reflect on the divine community that exists in the very heart and life of God, who we praise as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity is not a theological abstraction but a graced opportunity to contemplate the wondrous love of God who is a community of divine persons. This divine love of the Holy Trinity overflows into the world and into our lives.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity of Father, Son and Holy Spirit directs our gaze to a simple truth about who God is and who we are in relationship to God and one another. We believe in God who is a community of Father, Son and Holy Spirit and into whose life we are incorporated in baptism. We are baptized in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and made members of the family of God!

The psalmist invites us to praise the goodness of the divine community of Father, Son and Holy Spirit as he gives thanks for the heavens, the moon and the stars, animals, birds and fish of the sea. These marvelous works of God, the divine artist, are crowned by the creation of man and woman, created from the beginning to exist in a community of love.

As the psalmist sings, "You have made him little less than the angels and crowned him with glory and honor." The author of Proverbs echoes the same song of praise to God for creating the heavens, the seas, all earth's creatures, and for finding "delight in the human race."

In the Gospel, Jesus promises the gift of the Spirit of truth who will guide the church in the truth that comes from God. Jesus is the face of the invisible God, his Father, and their divine love is poured out in the gift of the Holy Spirit on the church.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity recalls our baptismal incorporation into the divine community of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit that deepens every time we gather around the table of the Eucharist.

And we know this with the certainty of faith "because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us," as St. Paul tells the Romans. In the joy of belonging to the community of the Holy Trinity with faith we pray, "speak to me, Lord."

Reflection Question:

What does it mean to belong through baptism in the community of the Holy Trinity?

CYO News by Mary Reilly

Thank you, Fr. Jose!

One of the many things I am so grateful to Fr. Jose for is his daily homilies. Anyone who frequents the 7:30 AM daily Mass knows that when Monsignor gives a homily you are going to learn a lot more about the background story of each scripture reading. With Fr. Jose it's always his use of beautiful imagery. Recently he spoke about the Visitation and that what was most significant about it was that Mary carrying Jesus within Her was more importantly bringing Him to others (in this case Elizabeth and her family.) Fr. Jose gave us the image of our doing the same—carrying Jesus within us and to everyone we know. Father always emphasizes the importance of parents and grandparents teaching their children and grandchildren. If we don't teach them our Catholic faith, the world will teach them something else. Another favorite image I always think of is when Fr. talks about how huge the vineyard of Christianity is—where so much has to get done. People need to learn the faith, be fed the Gospel messages, and be loved and cared for. Father paints an image of a vineyard that is huge and where work is overwhelming for the few that make sacrifices to work there. The message is—there is so much work to do to lead others to Christ and never enough people to do that work. We all have to show up. Father recently gave what I call his "Enough" homily. People say "well I go to Mass on Sunday and send a check once a year to the Missions...and that is enough." Not so. Father tells us that we have to pray and work like crazy every single day and never be content that we are doing enough for God and His children. I normally leave his Masses and keep the imagery he uses with me all day---just like when Monsignor Sean explains what was happening in the Gospel story, or the Acts of the Apostles, or in an Old Testament story, I want to go home, pull out my Bible and read more! Thank you, Father. I know that you—like the Holy Mother—will carry Jesus within you-- and to others-- wherever you go. Deus benedicat tibi

Catholic Charities News

Eight months have passed since Catholic Charities Trenton appealed to parishes for donations to aid the 13,000 Afghan refugees housed at the Joint Base McGuire-Dix-Lakehurst. Since then, our donors and parishioners have contributed over $100,000 used to create recreational centers, theatres, barber shops and salons as well as supply medical needs like glasses and wheelchairs. Additionally, the community rallied with donations of clothes, games and toys delivered directly to the base. A big thank you to everyone who helped sustain these refugees who fled their country with only the clothes on their back.

Approximately 500 of our Afghan guests have now settled in NJ. The others have relocated through resettlement centers around the country.

Feeding the Hungry

Frozen Meals Program Resumes!

Are you looking for an easy way to help those in need? Here's one way you can make a difference. St. Mark's Social Concerns Ministry is resuming the Frozen Meals Program for the Center in Asbury Park which was discontinued due to the Covid pandemic. The Center in Asbury Park, Inc., is a volunteer-based New Jersey not-for-profit service organization, providing support services for people living with HIV/AIDS and their caregivers since 1992.

The process is simple! Here's what to do:

- Pick up food trays and lids next to the kitchen refrigerator in Fr. Child's Hall (St. Mark's Church basement)
- Fill the trays with generous portions of food
- Label the tray lids with the contents and date of preparation
- Return the meals to the freezer compartment of the refrigerator in Fr. Child's Hall.

Please use only the trays provided.

St Mark's volunteers will deliver the meals to The Center for distribution to their clients.

Please contact Marybeth or Joe Walsh at 732 449-5656 with any questions. Your participation is greatly appreciated.

The Carmel Connection Foundation

Our Lady of Mount Carmel School was established in 1923 to serve immigrant students and families in Asbury Park and the surrounding communities. As a result of the work of many dedicated educators, graduates have become doctors, nurses, engineers, educators, religious women, priests, etc.

Today there are about 200 well-motivated students in K - 8th grades, from low-income, hard-working families. Unfortunately, most families cannot afford the full tuition, and with each year comes a financial challenge to offset the resulting operating deficit. Fund-raisers like bingo, the Adopt-A-Student program, etc. are ongoing, but typically not enough.

The Carmel Connection Foundation (CCF) was established to develop an independent, dedicated multi-million-dollar endowment fund by the end of the 2023 school year, the school's 100th anniversary. The income from this fund would be sufficient to offset the school's annual operating deficit. Beyond that, additional funds will continue to be raised for future requirements of the school. More information is available at <ccf4olmc.org>.

We would appreciate any help the parishioners of St. Mark's could provide to support and increase awareness of our Foundation. And please remember us in your prayers.

Solemnidad de la Santísima Trinidad

Primera Lectura: Prov 8, 22-31.

Esto dice la sabiduría de Dios: “El Señor me poseía desde el principio, antes que sus obras más antiguas. Quedé establecida desde la eternidad, desde el principio, antes de que la tierra existiera. Antes de que existieran los abismos y antes de que brotaran los manantiales de las aguas, fui concebida. Antes de que las montañas y las colinas quedaran asentadas, nací yo. Cuando aún no había hecho el Señor la tierra ni los campos ni el primer polvo del universo, cuando él afianzaba los cielos, ahí estaba yo. Cuando ceñía con el horizonte la faz del abismo, cuando colgaba las nubes en lo alto, cuando hacía brotar las fuentes del océano, cuando fijó al mar sus límites y mandó a las aguas que no los traspasaran, cuanto establecía los cimientos de la tierra, yo estaba junto a él como arquitecto de sus obras, yo era su encanto cotidiano; todo el tiempo me recreaba en su presencia, jugando con el orbe de la tierra y mis delicias eran estar con los hijos de los hombres”.

Salmo Responsorial: Salmo 8, 4-5. 6-7. 8-9.

¡Qué admirable, Señor, es tu poder!

Cuando contemplo el cielo, obra de tus manos, la luna y

las estrellas, que has creado, me pregunto:

¿Qué es el hombre para que de él te acuerdes, ese pobre ser humano, para que de él te preocupes?

¡Qué admirable, Señor, es tu poder!

Sin embargo, lo hiciste un poquito inferior a los ángeles, lo coronaste de gloria y dignidad; le diste el mando sobre las obras de tus manos, y todo lo sometiste bajo sus pies.

¡Qué admirable, Señor, es tu poder!

Pusiste a su servicio los rebaños y las manadas, todos los animales salvajes, las aves del cielo y los peces del mar, que recorren los caminos de las aguas.

¡Qué admirable, Señor, es tu poder!

Segunda Lectura: Rom 5, 1-5.

Hermanos: Ya que hemos sido justificados por la fe, mantengámonos en paz con Dios, por mediación de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. Por él hemos obtenido, con la fe, la entrada al mundo de la gracia, en el cual nos encontramos; por él, podemos gloriarnos de tener la esperanza de participar en la gloria de Dios. Más aún, nos gloriamos hasta de los sufrimientos, pues sabemos que el sufrimiento engendra la paciencia, la paciencia engendra la virtud sólida, la virtud sólida engendra la esperanza, y la esperanza no defrauda, porque Dios ha infundido su amor en nuestros corazones por medio del Espíritu Santo, que él mismo nos ha dado.

Aclamación antes del Evangelio: Cfr Apoc 1, 8.

R. Aleluya, aleluya.

Gloria al Padre y al Hijo y al Espíritu Santo.

Al Dios que es, que era y que vendrá.

R. Aleluya.

Evangelio: Jn 16, 12-15.

En aquel tiempo, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: “Aún tengo muchas cosas que decirles, pero todavía no las pueden comprender. Pero cuando venga el Espíritu de la verdad, él los irá guiando hasta la verdad plena, porque no hablará por su cuenta, sino que dirá lo que haya oído y les anunciará las cosas que van a suceder. El me glorificará, porque primero recibirá de mí lo que les vaya comunicando. Todo lo que tiene el Padre es mío. Por eso he dicho que tomará de lo mío y se lo comunicará a ustedes”.
