Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 95

Reading I Jb 38:1, 8-11

The Lord addressed Job out of the storm and said: Who shut within doors the sea, when it burst forth from the womb; when I made the clouds its garment and thick darkness its swaddling bands? When I set limits for it and fastened the bar of its door, and said: Thus far shall you come but no farther, and here shall your proud waves be stilled!

Responsorial Psalm 107:23-24, 25-26, 28-29, 30-31

R. (1b) Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

or:

R. Alleluia.

They who sailed the sea in ships, trading on the deep waters, These saw the works of the LORD and his wonders in the abyss.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

or:

R. Alleluia.

His command raised up a storm wind which tossed its waves on high. They mounted up to heaven; they sank to the depths; their hearts melted away in their plight.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

or:

R. Alleluia.

They cried to the LORD in their distress; from their straits he rescued them, He hushed the storm to a gentle breeze, and the billows of the sea were stilled. R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

or:

R. Alleluia.

They rejoiced that they were calmed, and he brought them to their desired haven. Let them give thanks to the LORD for his kindness and his wondrous deeds to the children of men.

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

or:

R. Alleluia.

Reading II 2 Cor 5:14-17

Brothers and sisters:

The love of Christ impels us, once we have come to the conviction that one died for all; therefore, all have died.

He indeed died for all, so that those who live might no longer live for themselves but for him who for their sake died and was raised.

Consequently, from now on we regard no one according to the flesh; even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know him so no longer.

So whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.

Alleluia Lk 7:16

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

A great prophet has risen in our midst God has visited his people.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Mk 4:35-41

On that day, as evening drew on, Jesus said to his disciples:

“Let us cross to the other side.”

Leaving the crowd, they took Jesus with them in the boat just as he was.

And other boats were with him.

A violent squall came up and waves were breaking over the boat, so that it was already filling up.

Jesus was in the stern, asleep on a cushion.

They woke him and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?”

He woke up, rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Quiet! Be still!”

The wind ceased and there was great calm.

Then he asked them, “Why are you terrified?

Do you not yet have faith?”

They were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey?”

MASS MATTERS

Fr. Bausch's book "Mass Matters" is on sale in the rectory for $15.

Please call ahead and we will have it ready for you to pick it up!

Northern New Jersey Alcoholics Anonymous provides information on AA as a resource for anyone who thinks they may have drinking problem, as well as to answer any questions that professionals or community members may have about Alcoholics Anonymous. Please visit www.nnjaa.org for more information.

St. Mark's Altar Rosary Society

St. Mark's Altar Rosary Society will be reciting the rosary after the 11am mass on the first Monday of each month.

We invite those that cannot make it to church, to join us from home in the recitation of the rosary. In this way we continue to honor our Blessed Mother and follow her directions to continue praying for an end to abortion and all the intentions of her Immaculate Heart.

Eucharistic Devotion

The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join us on Friday's immediately after the 11 AM Mass for Adoration. Benediction begins at 1:45PM. It will also be broadcast on livestream @ stmarkseagirt.com. Come spend some quiet time with the Lord.

Bishop's Anniversary Blessing Events

To ensure that all 2020 anniversary couples are able to receive our bishop's personal blessing for the milestone anniversaries of 1 year, 25 years and 50 or more years, Bishop O'Connell extends his invitation to all couples celebrating their 1st or 2nd, 25th or 26th, or 50th or more anniversary in 2021 to the Bishop's Anniversary Blessing events to be held on Sunday, October 10 for Monmouth County Parishes. Registration will be available in July 2021. Visit <https://dioceseoftrenton.org/building-strong-marriages>.

Happy Father's Day!

On Father's Day weekend, please join us in offering a spiritual bouquet to St. Joseph. As we celebrate the gift of fathers and honor St. Joseph, we also recognize that Father's Day can be a difficult holiday for many. We hope this spiritual bouquet provides an opportunity to pray for the intentions brought to your heart by the occasion.

Today is World Refugee Day

Today, we pause and remember the 25 million people who have had to flee their countries in search of safety for their families. According to the 1951 Refugee Convention, a refugee is one who "owing to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group or political opinion, is outside the country of his nationality, and is unable to, or owing to such fear, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of that country." The Catholic Church has for decades taken seriously the plight of these vulnerable refugees and through advocacy, education efforts, and service provision sought to provide increased protections for them. Visit www.Justiceforimmigrants.org to learn how you can assist the Church in this effort.

The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette will preach the annual parish mission appeal on July 17-18, 2021

Having brought the fullness of Life to our world when He rose from the dead, Jesus sent his disciples to share this life with all of creation. "They went forth and preached everywhere" (Mk 16:20). The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette minister to people of every race, language, culture and way of life – beginning at the La Salette Shrine in France where our Blessed Mother appeared in 1846. Her final words, "Well, my children, you will make this known to all my people," echo Jesus' Gospel mandate. It is little wonder that the La Salette Congregation has always been mission orientated. When called upon by the Vatican to preach the Gospel in foreign lands, they eagerly responded. This spirit brought them to mission in 27 countries, especially among the poor in Angola, Argentina, Bolivia, Haiti, India, Madagascar, Myanmar and the Philippines. With your cooperation, the Missionaries of La Salette can continue to provide spiritual and financial assistance to these mission countries as they bring God's reconciling message to the poor.

Rosary Makers

Rosary Makers will meet Monday, June 28th at 1pm in St. Mark's Church basement (Fr. Child's Hall).

We will not meet in July and August. Our next meeting will be Monday, September 27th. However, we are busy making rosaries over the summer! Please consider joining our ministry as we are always in need of rosary makers. Making rosaries is easy and relaxing!

Mae Skola is available over the summer to teach anyone who would like to learn the skill.

For questions or additional information please contact Maria Checton at 732-245-8405.

The Knights of Columbus

are once again collecting eye-glasses in any condition. The glasses will be repaired and distributed to those in need.

A collection container is in the vestibule of the Church through June 27th.

WORKING TOGETHER
TO STOP COVID-19

Catholic Charities, Diocese of Trenton is providing COVID-19 vaccines, tests, contact tracing, and health education to underserved groups in Mercer, Monmouth and Ocean counties, especially those in the Latino, Black and immigrant communities.

- Serve as a COVID-19 vaccine administration and testing site.
- Remove barriers and increase access for marginalized groups by offering vaccine pre-registration, appointment scheduling, technology assistance, and resource referrals for those who need transportation or childcare vouchers.
- Educate the community by creating wellness groups, working directly with vulnerable and hard-to-reach individuals through in-home engagement and multiple languages, and providing safe spaces for immigrants to ask questions and receive information.
- Help build a statewide, bilingual community health worker workforce - in conjunction with community colleges.
- Encourage people to join the "COVID Community Corps" as volunteers to help others find and access the vaccine.

This work is possible through the Epidemiology and Laboratory Capacity for Prevention and Control of Emerging Infectious Diseases (ELC) project, a statewide initiative providing resources to enhance detection, response, contact tracing and prevention efforts to stop the spread of COVID-19. The project is administered by the New Jersey Department of Health Division of Family Health Services and the Maternal Child Health Consortium, through a partnership with the Central Jersey Family Health Consortium as a regional grantee. CJFHC grants support community-based organizations serving vulnerable populations. ELC supports expanded access to COVID-19 testing and vaccines, and training for community health workers to connect at-risk persons with needed services and reliable COVID-19 information.

ELC funding was made available through the New Jersey Department of Health Division of Family Health Services to enhance detection, response, contact tracing and prevention efforts to stop the spread of COVID-19.

CYO Senior Supper

Our CYO seniors from left to right (Christina, Kiera, Rory, Michael and Connor) at Senior Supper with Monsignor Sean!

Monsignor invites our seniors to have supper with him each year to thank them for their outstanding dedication and faithfulness to our CYO program. Throughout their high school years these wonderful young people perform many acts of loving mercy and service to others while growing in their faith. We wish them well as they continue their faith journey in whichever direction they choose. They will be greatly missed but always treasured by our parish family.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

As a non-swimmer, I can verify the fear that deep water whipped by storm winds is very real. It is almost contradictory that a storm on the Sea of Galilee, which was notorious for its storms, would strike fear in the hearts of experience-hardened fishermen. But evidently it did. We learn that a water swamped fishing boat easily frightened this chosen crew. It is delightfully ironic that the only Carpenter on the boat would be so unconcerned as to fall asleep. It was a deep sleep, of the kind visited on people with clear consciences like the Lord's. We know for sure that it took a hearty shoulder shake to wake Jesus up. Only to get scolded for His apparent nonchalance. "Don't you care that we are perishing?"

We don't have to imagine what Jesus asked them after He ended the storm. Mark gives it to us. "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

Amid this seemingly endless "storm" of the Covid pandemic and all the other "storms" that test our tranquility, Jesus could well ask us the same question, right? As grateful as we should be for the various vaccines, we must believe they are not enough for us and many people to block the "winds of anxiety." Saddest of all reactions has come that of many young people who have ended their "Covid fatigue" with suicide. Crossed off futures just like that. Akin to the lost futures of the millions of aborted babies. We have to bestir our baptismal faith and all its promises. Only the Man who was asleep on the boat can put an end to these and other evils.

Acknowledging today's arrival of the second Father's Day in a row with masked faces and sanitizers still in place, there is a special place of honor for all our fathers. They are the family leaders. Families are the bedrock of the worldwide family of the Church. We know the traditional family is under new and varied attack by segments of our society today. A good, strong, faith-filled Catholic father is a strong antidote to this cultural poison for his spouse and children. Such men have Jesus as their divine support and the Church along side.

As we combine the story of Our Lord's power over storms and His enduring example, with thoughts about the power of a present day good father's example, we can ponder this observation by Clarence Budington Kelland (d.1964) who was an American writer of fiction and short stories and who once described himself as "the best second rate writer in America." I think his praise of his father is first rate. This is what he wrote: "My father didn't tell me how to live. He lived and let me watch him do it."

God love you and give you His peace.

YOUNG MEN INVITED TO VOCATIONS MASS, BBQ WITH BISHOP

An afternoon of discussion and camaraderie with the Diocese's shepherd and priests will take place June 29 for those discerning a call to the priesthood.

Bishop David M. O'Connell, C.M., will celebrate Mass at 4:30 p.m. in St. John Church, Allentown, followed by a barbecue under tents on the parish property. Men ages 15 to 40 are invited to attend.

"The aim of this event is to connect with potential new discerners, as well as to foster community among our current discerners," said Father Jason Parzynski, diocesan director of vocations. "It's a great low-key event to invite someone who is hesitant or just beginning to think about the priesthood."

Those seeking more information, men currently in formation and ordained clergy of the vocations team will be present at the barbecue.

"This is for those who ... want to see what it's all about – an opportunity to connect, ask questions," Father Parzynski said. "The ultimate aim is to discern God's will and to help them have the confidence to make the next choice – whether it's to enter seminary or to go another direction."

Registration is required and can be made at www.GodIsCallingYou.org, or by emailing vocations@dioceseoftrenton.org. St. John Church is located at 1282 Yardville Allentown Rd., Allentown.

Decimosegundo Domingo Ordinario ~ Junio 20, 2021

Primera Lectura: Job 38, 1. 8-11.

El Señor habló a Job desde la tormenta y le dijo: “Yo le puse límites al mar, cuando salía impetuoso del seno materno; yo hice de la niebla sus mantillas y de las nubes sus pañales; yo le impuse límites con puertas y cerrojos y le dije: ‘Hasta aquí llegarás, no más allá. Aquí se romperá la arrogancia de tus olas’”.

Salmo Responsorial: Salmo 106, 23-24. 25-26. 28-29. 30-31.

Demos gracias al Señor por su bondades.

Los que la mar surcaban con sus naves, por las aguas inmensas negociando, el poder del Señor y sus prodigios en media del abismo contemplaron.

Demos gracias al Señor por su bondades.

Habló el Señor y un viento huracanado las olas encrespó; al cielo y al abismo eran lanzados, sobrecogidos de terror. R.

Demos gracias al Señor por su bondades.

Clamaron al Señor en tal apuro y él los libró de sus congojas Cambio la tempestad en suave brisa, y apaciguó las olas. R.

Demos gracias al Señor por su bondades.

Se alegraron al ver la mar tranquila y el Señor los llevó al puerto anhelado. Den gracias al Señor por los prodigios que su amor por el hombre ha realizado.

Demos gracias al Señor por su bondades.

Segunda Lectura: 2 Corintios 5, 14-17.

Hermanos: El amor de Cristo nos apremia, al pensar que si uno murió por todos, todos murieron. Cristo murió por todos para que los que viven ya no vivan para sí mismos, sino para aquel que murió y resucitó por ellos. Por eso nosotros ya no juzgamos a nadie con criterios humanos. Si alguna vez hemos juzgado a Cristo con tales criterios, ahora ya no lo hacemos. El que vive según Cristo es una criatura nueva; para él todo lo viejo ha pasado. Ya todo es nuevo.

Aclamación antes del Evangelio: Lucas 7, 16.

R. Aleluya, aleluya.

Un gran profeta ha surgido entre nosotros.

Dios ha visitado a su pueblo.

R. Aleluya.

Evangelio: Marcos 4, 35-41.

Un día, al atardecer, Jesús dijo a sus discípulos: “Vamos a la otra orilla del lago”. Entonces los discípulos despidieron a la gente y condujeron a Jesús en la misma barca en que estaba. Iban además otras barcas. De pronto se desató un fuerte viento y las olas se estrellaban contra la barca y la iban llenando de agua. Jesús dormía en la popa, reclinado sobre un cojín. Lo despertaron y le dijeron: “Maestro, ¿no te importa que nos hundamos?” Él se despertó, reprendió al viento y dijo al mar: “¡Cállate, enmudece!” Entonces el viento cesó y sobrevino una gran calma. Jesús les dijo: “¿Por qué tenían tanto miedo? ¿Aún no tienen fe?” Todos se quedaron espantados y se decían unos a otros: “¿Quién es éste, a quien hasta el viento y el mar obedecen?”
