Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time Lectionary: 107

Reading I Jer 23:1-6

Woe to the shepherds who mislead and scatter the flock of my pasture, says the LORD.

Therefore, thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who shepherd my people: You have scattered my sheep and driven them away. You have not cared for them, but I will take care to punish your evil deeds.

I myself will gather the remnant of my flock from all the lands to which I have driven them and bring them back to their meadow; there they shall increase and multiply.

I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD.

Behold, the days are coming, says the LORD, when I will raise up a righteous shoot to David; as king he shall reign and govern wisely, he shall do what is just and right in the land.

In his days Judah shall be saved, Israel shall dwell in security. This is the name they give him: "The LORD our justice."

Responsorial Psalm Ps 23:1-3, 3-4, 5, 6

R. (1) The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. In verdant pastures he gives me repose; beside restful waters he leads me; he refreshes my soul.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. He guides me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk in the dark valley I fear no evil; for you are at my side with your rod and your staff that give me courage.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. You spread the table before me in the sight of my foes; you anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Only goodness and kindness follow me all the days of my life; and I shall dwell in the house of the LORD for years to come.

R. The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reading II Eph 2:13-18

Brothers and sisters:

In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ.

For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity, through his flesh, abolishing the law with its commandments and legal claims, that he might create in himself one new person in place of the two, thus establishing peace, and might reconcile both with God, in one body, through the cross, putting that enmity to death by it.

He came and preached peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near, for through him we both have access in one Spirit to the Father.

Alleluia

Jn 10:27

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

My sheep hear my voice, says the Lord; I know them, and they follow me.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel

Mk 6:30-34

The apostles gathered together with Jesus and reported all they had done and taught.

He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while."

People were coming and going in great numbers, and they had no opportunity even to eat. So they went off in the boat by themselves to a deserted place.

People saw them leaving and many came to know about it. They hastened there on foot from all the towns and arrived at the place before them.

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things.

St. Mark's Bereavement Ministry

Our Bereavement Ministry helps those who are grieving the loss of a loved one during their most difficult times. They meet on Wednesdays at 11 AM in St. Mark's Church basement (Fr. Child's Hall).

Please call Sue Nolan at 718-637-1162 for more information. All are welcome!

Thank You! We are so grateful to all those who financially sacrifice each week to support our parish and its ministries!

We would especially like to thank all of those who faithfully use their weekly parish contribution envelopes and those who give online through the Parish Giving Program.

July 11, 2021 collection amount $12,706.

Saint Mark's Rosary Makers

We are happy to report that Saint Mark's Rosary Makers mailed out over 7,000 rosaries to various ministries this past year! Although we won't meet again until Monday, September 27th, we will be busy making rosaries over the summer. To clarify, we make rosary beads at our own pace and in our homes. At monthly meetings (September to June) we drop off the rosaries we made, replenish necessary supplies (e.g., beads, string, crosses), and prepare boxes for mailing. That is, we don't make rosary beads at the meetings. The average volunteer makes approximately 55 rosaries (ranging from 0 - 150) per month. Making rosaries is easy, relaxing, and very rewarding. We are in need of additional rosary makers. Please consider volunteering for this important ministry. For more information please contact: Maria Checton (732) 245-8405 or mgchecton@gmail.com.

While everyone is not yet able to participate in person at Masses, you can watch them online by visiting our parish website: Saint Mark's Catholic Church - 215 Crescent Pkwy, Sea Girt, New Jersey 08750 \(stmarkseagirt.com\) and click on the Livestream logo or highlight the link below then right click and click open Hyperlink St. Mark Church Streaming Player | Powered by StreamSpot.

The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette will preach the Annual Parish Mission Appeal
This Weekend, July 17-18, 2021

Having brought the fullness of Life to our world when He rose from the dead, Jesus sent his disciples to share this life with all of creation. "They went forth and preached everywhere" (Mk 16:20). The Missionaries of Our Lady of La Salette minister to people of every race, language, culture and way of life – beginning at the La Salette Shrine in France where our Blessed Mother appeared in 1846. Her final words, "Well, my children, you will make this known to all my people," echo Jesus' Gospel mandate. It is little wonder that the La Salette Congregation has always been mission orientated. When called upon by the Vatican to preach the Gospel in foreign lands, they eagerly responded. This spirit brought them to mission in 27 countries, especially among the poor in Angola, Argentina, Bolivia, Haiti, India, Madagascar, Myanmar and the Philippines. With your cooperation, the Missionaries of La Salette can continue to provide spiritual and financial assistance to these mission countries as they bring God's reconciling message to the poor.

PLEASE NOTE: It has come to our attention that spam emails are being received from Msgr. Flynn. Do not respond, do not click links, and do not open any attachments in these messages. Thank you.

Eucharistic Devotion

The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join us on Friday's immediately after the 11 AM Mass for Adoration. Benediction begins at 1:45PM. It will also be broadcast on livestream @ stmarkseagirt.com. Come spend some quiet time with the Lord.

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

It was 7 year old Ricky who got my vote for “best entry” when he made me laugh out loud as I read his comment. It was the last of a 10 item list of “Kid’s Comments about Love” that I found on Facebook. This is what Ricky wrote: “Tell your wife she is beautiful even if she looks like a truck.”

Granted that Ricky will one day, along with us, have to concede that things like love and bodily appearance change with time, and that beauty is often only skin deep, remaining mostly in the eye of the beholder.

But a question arises from time to time related to this matter of beauty, namely “What does God look like?” Without any full scriptural description of Jesus to go by, we only have hints, as in Our Lord’s famous answer to His apostle Philip: “He who sees Me sees the Father.” But we’re not as fortunate as Philip was, even without the details we might yearn to have. Yes, we do have the holy Shroud of Turin, but that at best gives us an idea of what Jesus our God looked like in death, and not in life.

So along come our imaginations, as varied as there are people living on the planet with us. Add in the portraits of great artists. Then we have to factor in the faces of the many actors who have taken on the role of Jesus for movies about Him. You may have a favorite.

The 4 evangelists who grace our world with their gospels apparently had no interest in this subject, which means that neither did the Holy Spirit who is, after all, their inspiration. The gospels are mainly interested in being catechetical instruments for their readers to get to know and love Jesus. To acknowledge Him as the “Way, the Truth and the Life.” But every now and then the Holy Spirit lets us deduce certain characteristics of Christ that lead us to picture His face and enhance our devotion. Take the words of St. Mark today: “Jesus saw the crowd and His heart was moved with compassion, for they were like sheep without a shepherd.” I picture a look of concern on His Face, and the look of love in His Hebrew eyes.

Reflecting further, we also have here a clear refutation of all those portraits of God as a hardened old man, white-whiskered and watchful for His next opportunity to pounce on us for our least infraction. What a tragedy to carry around such an image of God!

I’ve often thought how it’s such a shame that we have few painted portraits that capture Jesus smiling. He had to look that way when He was with the children, or they might have stayed away from Him. I bet He might have smiled as He pulled St. Peter out of the sea as the Big Fisherman had to be rescued from his short-lived walk on water.

But then there is our belief that we can see Him in the face of others. The people around our dining room table to start. Then on to the faces of our friends old and new. Strangers everywhere. Perhaps even in the face of an elderly bishop whose story fits well with the current Year of St. Joseph.

During Vatican Council II, an aged bishop from Yugoslavia shuffled up to the podium and appealed to the assembled bishops to include the name of Joseph in the First Eucharistic Prayer, or traditional Canon of the Mass. To the majority present this seemed unimportant at the moment. They were concerned with major changes and expressed their disapproval in the routine fashion they had of slapping the bench in unison to the chant, “Non ad rem!” (not to the point).

The old bishop then left the podium and tottered back to his place. But in the papal apartments, Pope (later Saint) John XXIII (who watched all the proceedings on closed-circuit TV) was not amused. He knew that this old bishop had been imprisoned for 9 years in a Communist jail, and that his captors had broken both his legs and simply left him in his pain. During this ordeal the agonizing bishop had prayed to St. Joseph.

Reading I: Jeremiah 23: 1-6

The passage tells readers about the future king of Israel and Judah, who will be a “righteous shoot of David.” The former kings were bad actors, and misleading shepherds of the people.

Reading II: Ephesians 2: 13-18

Jesus’ blood has made Him the agent of peace between both Jews and Gentiles and the same between God and humanity. He has created one new person out of the two.

The Gospel: Mark 6: 30-34

This scene comes right before the feeding of the 5,000. The disciples participate in Christ’s work; then we learn His followers are in “great numbers;” and finally of His compassion for the needy crowd.

ALTAR SERVERS WANTED

A JOB SO BIG ONLY A KID CAN DO IT!

Msgr. Flynn and Fr. Jose would like to invite your children to become Altar Servers here at St. Mark's. Altar Serving is an invaluable support to the Priest during the Mass as well as contributing to the enrichment of the server by allowing them to get fully involved and understanding the Mass better.

The Ministry requires a sincere commitment on your part as well, but it is a beautiful way for your children to participate in the life of the church and learn some fantastic life skills.

I hope you will consider this invitation and speak with your children about becoming more involved in our church community.

Requirements:

- ✓ Must have received First Holy Communion.
- ✓ Have a strong desire to serve the Lord.
- ✓ Serve two Masses per month.

We will offer two training sessions, please call for dates.

For more information please call or email Mrs. Diana Zuna Nieves at:

Rachel's Vineyard Retreats for healing after abortion

Rachel's Vineyard is an extraordinary opportunity for any person who struggles with emotional and spiritual pain of past abortion(s). The weekend is a unique and effective process designed specifically to help you experience the mercy and compassion of God. There are many exercises to help you grieve your loss and an opportunity to understand and release the deep feelings of anger, shame, guilt, and grief that frequently accompanies an abortion experience. This process is extremely helpful for those who struggle with forgiving themselves or others. The weekend will help your soul find a voice and transform the pain of the past into hope. Rachel's Vineyard is a "therapy for the soul" which combines a unique and creative process for psychological and spiritual healing. The next Rachel's Vineyard retreat in the Diocese of Trenton will be August 27-29. To find out if this may be right for you, contact Judy at 732-536-6871 or judywarren543@msn.com. All calls are strictly confidential. Read more about Rachel's Vineyard online at www.rachelsvineyard.org.

Decimosexto Domingo Ordinario
Julio 18, 2021

Primera Lectura:

Jeremías 23,1-6.

“¡Ay de los pastores que dispersan y dejan perecer a las ovejas de mi rebaño!, dice el Señor.
Por eso habló así el Señor, Dios de Israel, contra los pastores que apacientan a mi pueblo: “Ustedes han rechazado y dispersado a mis ovejas y no las han cuidado. Yo me encargaré de castigar la maldad de las acciones de ustedes. Yo mismo reuniré al resto de mis ovejas de todos los países a donde las había expulsado y las volveré a traer a sus pastos, para que ahí crezcan y se multipliquen. Les pondré pastores que las apacienten. Ya no temerán ni se espantarán y ninguna se perderá. Miren: Viene un tiempo, dice el Señor, en que haré surgir un renuevo en el tronco de David: será un rey justo y prudente y hará que en la tierra se observen la ley y la justicia. En sus días será puesto a salvo Judá, Israel habitará confiadamente y a él lo llamarán con este nombre: ‘El Señor es nuestra justicia’ ”.

Salmo Responsorial 22

El Señor es mi pastor, nada me faltará.

El Señor es mi pastor, nada me falta:
en verdes praderas me hace reposar y hacia fuentes tranquilas me conduce para reparar mis fuerzas.

El Señor es mi pastor, nada me faltará.

Por ser un Dios fiel a sus promesas, me guía por el sendero recto; así, aunque camine por cañadas oscuras, nada temo, porque tú estás conmigo.
Tu vara y tu cayado me dan seguridad.

El Señor es mi pastor, nada me faltará.

Tú mismo me preparas la mesa, a despecho de mis adversarios; me unges la cabeza con perfume, y llenas mi copa hasta los bordes.

El Señor es mi pastor, nada me faltará.

Tu bondad y tu misericordia me acompañaran todos los días de mi vida; y viviré en la casa del Señor por años sin término.

El Señor es mi pastor, nada me faltará.

Segunda Lectura: Efesios 2, 13-18.

Hermanos: Ahora, unidos a Cristo Jesús, ustedes, que antes estaban lejos, están cerca, en virtud de la sangre de Cristo. Porque él es nuestra paz; él hizo de los judíos y de los no judíos un solo pueblo; él destruyó, en su propio cuerpo, la barrera que los separaba: el odio; él abolió la ley, que consistía en mandatos y reglamentos, para crear en sí mismo, de los dos pueblos, un solo hombre nuevo, estableciendo la paz, y para reconciliar a ambos, hechos un solo cuerpo, con Dios, por medio de la cruz, dando muerte en sí mismo al odio. Vino para anunciar la buena nueva de la paz, tanto a ustedes, los que estaban lejos, como a los que estaban cerca. Así, unos y otros podemos acercarnos al Padre, por la acción de un mismo Espíritu.

Aclamación antes del Evangelio: Juan 10, 27.

R. Aleluya, aleluya.

Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz, dice el Señor; yo las conozco y ellas me siguen.

R. Aleluya.

Evangelio: Marcos 6, 30-34.

En aquel tiempo, los apóstoles volvieron a reunirse con Jesús y le contaron todo lo que habían hecho y enseñado. Entonces él les dijo: “Vengan conmigo a un lugar solitario, para que descansen un poco”, porque eran tantos los que iban y venían, que no les dejaban tiempo ni para comer. Jesús y sus apóstoles se dirigieron en una barca hacia un lugar apartado y tranquilo. La gente los vio irse y los reconoció; entonces de todos los poblados fueron corriendo por tierra a aquel sitio y se les adelantaron. Cuando Jesús desembarcó, vio una numerosa multitud que lo estaba esperando y se compadeció de ellos, porque andaban como ovejas sin pastor, y se puso a enseñarles muchas cosas.

Trabajo de medio tiempo

Maestro/a de Español

La Escuela Primaria de St. Rose en Belmar, una escuela católica de pre-Kinder a octavo grado, está en busca de un maestro de español para el año académico de 2021-2022.

La misión de la escuela es desarrollar en cada estudiante una mente activa y creativa, un fuerte sentido de entendimiento y compasión para los demás, y el coraje de vivir la fe católica con confianza. Este sentido de fe, en conjunción con la preparación de los estudiantes para la economía global, construye una fundación fuerte para los líderes del futuro.

Tenemos la expectativa de que el maestro de español:

- Enseñe la lengua española eficazmente.
- Trabaje en conjunción con la escuela secundaria de St. Rose para que los estudiantes estén bien preparados para una clase avanzada de español.
- Evalúe el progreso de los estudiantes.
- Mantenga un buen manejo de la clase.
- Sea competente en el uso de la tecnología en cuanto al éxito académico de los estudiantes.

Por favor, envíe una carta de interés y un historial personal o curriculum vitae al director de la escuela, el Sr. Greg Guito, a más tardar el 15 de junio.

Título requerido:

La Licenciatura en Educación

Licencia/Certificado requerido:
