BREAD OF LIFE

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lectionary: 116

Reading I

1 Kgs 19:4-8

Elijah went a day's journey into the desert, until he came to a broom tree and sat beneath it. He prayed for death saying: "This is enough, O LORD! Take my life, for I am no better than my fathers." He lay down and fell asleep under the broom tree, but then an angel touched him and ordered him to get up and eat.

Elijah looked and there at his head was a hearth cake and a jug of water. After he ate and drank, he lay down again, but the angel of the LORD came back a second time, touched him, and ordered, "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!"

He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. (9a) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

I will bless the LORD at all times; his praise shall be ever in my mouth. Let my soul glory in the LORD; the lowly will hear me and be glad.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. Glorify the LORD with me, Let us together extol his name. I sought the LORD, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. Look to him that you may be radiant with joy and your faces may not blush with shame. When the afflicted man called out, the LORD heard, and from all his distress he saved him.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord. The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him and delivers them. Taste and see how good the LORD is; blessed the man who takes refuge in him.

R. Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

Reading II Eph 4:30—5:2

Brothers and sisters:

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with which you were sealed for the day of redemption. All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you, along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ.

So be imitators of God, as beloved children, and live in love, as Christ loved us and handed himself over for us as a sacrificial offering to God for a fragrant aroma.

Alleluia Jn 6:51

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live forever.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel Jn 6:41-51

The Jews murmured about Jesus because he said, "I am the bread that came down from heaven, " and they said, "Is this not Jesus, the son of Joseph? Do we not know his father and mother?"

Then how can he say, 'I have come down from heaven'?"

Jesus answered and said to them, "Stop murmuring among yourselves. No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draw him, and I will raise him on the last day. It is written in the prophets:

They shall all be taught by God. Everyone who listens to my Father and learns from him comes to me.

Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father.

Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life.

Your ancestors ate the manna in the desert, but they died; this is the bread that comes down from heaven so that one may eat it and not die.

I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

Eucharistic Devotion

The importance of Eucharistic Adoration is shown in the fact that the Church has a ritual that regulates it: the Rite of Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction. This is an extension of the adoration of the Blessed Sacrament which occurs in every Mass: "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb." Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament flows from the sacrifice of the Mass and serves to deepen our hunger for Communion with Christ and the rest of the Church. The Rite concludes with the ordained minister blessing the faithful with the Blessed Sacrament.

Please join us on Friday's immediately after the 11 AM Mass for Adoration. Benediction begins at 1:45PM. It will also be broadcast on livestream @ stmarkseagirt.com. Come spend some quiet time with the Lord.

Bishop's Anniversary Blessing

All couples celebrating their 1st, 25th or 50+ wedding anniversary during the 2020 or 2021 calendar year are invited to share the Eucharist, reaffirm your sacred wedding vows, and receive Bishop O'Connell's Episcopal Blessing. Couples from Ocean and Monmouth Counties may attend the Mass and Blessing at the Co-Cathedral of St. Robert Bellarmine in Freehold on Sunday, October 10, 2021 at 3 pm.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic, attendance at Mass is limited but both events will be livestreamed. For more information or to register online go to www.dioceseoftrenton.org/bishops-anniversary-blessing. The registration deadline for all anniversary couples is September 15, 2020.

Fordham/Marymount Reception for Alumni Thursday, August 19, 2021, 6-8PM at Spring Lake Bath and Tennis Club, Spring Lake

The Fordham Alumni Chapters of Northern New Jersey, Central New Jersey, and the Jersey Shore, along with Joseph M. McShane, S.J., President of Fordham University, cordially invite you to a reception for alumni, parents, and friends. We are happy to announce that Kyle Neptune, head men's basketball coach, will be with us to share his outlook on the upcoming season!

As a reminder, the format of this event has changed from a buffet dinner to a reception to allow more time to socialize and catch up with fellow Rams. We hope you take advantage of the lower price and encourage Fordham alumni and friends to attend!

This year's event costs $65 per person and includes heavy passed hors d'oeuvres, food stations, and an open bar. Advanced registration is required. RSVP by 8/12.

THIS IS MY BODY

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Ah, imagine a hot August afternoon, and you've got to mow the lawn, like it or not, as the humidity forces a stream of perspiration to run down your back. But you have to mow to get the yard ready for the Sunday cookout. Extended family and some guests coming. You couldn't do this the day before because of a steady rain. All you really want to do is hit the hammock and enjoy a cold beer, and catch about 45 winks.

Or imagine you're the hostess for a garden party, but you're more than a little tired because the baby wrecked your sleep last night. But the potato salad isn't done, and the table is yet to be set. All you really want to do is sip some of your favorite wine while comfortably stretched out on the chaise in the shade. Both of you would prefer to give up the tasks or call the whole thing off. These are just two down to earth examples of our weak selves confronting jobs that have to get done, along with the strong temptation not to do them.

We read today about one of God's chosen prophets, Elijah, who had decided as part of his job to go on a pilgrimage to far off Mt. Horeb. It would be a daunting trip, but had to be taken. Horeb, after all, was the mount where Moses spoke with God. Maybe God would help him, Elijah, to be refreshed and renewed. But he got drowsy from desert heat and became so heartsick that even suicide was tempting. So Elijah lay down. Suddenly an angel appeared to him holding an energizing cake and a skin of water. He tells Elijah to get up and move on. God had just sent him the strength to do it.

Centuries later, our gospel describes how the authentic Bread, the Bread of Life, which is Jesus Himself, urges His audience to eat this Bread, if they wish to live here and hereafter. As believers, trying every day to live the Christian life, in the midst of some powerful 21st century temptations to wealth, power and fame, we know this vital truth about the sustaining food that is Jesus. On any given Sunday we walk forward to receive Holy Communion believing it with all our heart to be the whole Jesus, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity.

But a question does arise, now especially when there are so many non-believers who took a U-turn away from our Catholic Church. Have you or I possibly grown nonchalant about this great Sacrament? Do we bracket the Sundays of our lives off to the side as a lesser issue, while we go about doing "the really important stuff"? Or so we think it is?

One more task for your imagination. Now it's 10 minutes before your death. You may be lying sick in a hospital or at home. Or worse still, going about "doing your thing" not knowing what's 10 minutes away. Do you think you'd really be anxious about your ordinary concerns? I doubt it.

Well, here we are on an August morning in 2021. You're very much alive and well. Time to ponder an essential item for your diet.

In the sacristies of Mother Teresa's Sisters of the Missionaries of Charity all over the world, one can see a little board hanging to remind each priest that he should celebrate Mass with devotion, freshness, contemplation and enthusiasm. The board reads: "Priest of God, celebrate this Mass as if it is your first Mass; your last Mass, and your only Mass." I believe that would make for good wording on a large board hanging up in the body of every chapel, church or cathedral in the world, as long the salutation were changed to read: "People of God." Wouldn't that be a true "sign for the times"?

Reading I: I Kings 19: 4-8

Elijah the prophet flees from Ahab's kingdom when that king refused to convert from paganism. He heads for the southern desert enroute to Mt. Horeb when he is overcome with desolation and wants to die. Suddenly an angel appears and provides him with food and drink to get up and finish his trip.

Reading II: Ephesians 4: 30 – 5:2

This section of the Letter presents an illustration of the type of conduct proper to a baptized Christian, who is now endowed with a whole new nature.

The Gospel: John 6: 41-51

After weathering a dispute that had arisen about His origin, Jesus declares Himself "the Bread of Life," that gives us the strength we need for the strength to complete our journey home.

COVID-19

The NJ Health Commissioner Judy Persichilli (a member of the Diocese) has acknowledged that NJ, at 70%, has the eighth highest vaccination rate in the country with 5.11 residents fully vaccinated. Some NJ counties, however, have evidenced numbers significantly below the state's 70% vaccination. With the Delta variant and other mutations of the COVID virus rapidly advancing throughout the country and the state, as the CDC has warned, now may be an opportune time for reminding our parishioners that the preventive vaccines are available, as an act of charity for their own as well as the common good.

The next Rachel's Vineyard retreat in the Diocese of Trenton will be August 27th-29th

Rachel's Vineyard is an extraordinary opportunity for any person who struggles with emotional and spiritual pain of past abortion(s). The weekend is a unique and effective process designed specifically to help you experience the mercy and compassion of God. There are many exercises to help you grieve your loss and an opportunity to understand and release the deep feelings of anger, shame, guilt, and grief that frequently accompanies an abortion experience. This process is extremely helpful for those who struggle with forgiving themselves or others. The weekend will help your soul find a voice and transform the pain of the past into hope. Rachel's Vineyard is a "therapy for the soul" which combines a unique and creative process for psychological and spiritual healing. . To find out if this may be right for you, contact Judy at 732-536-6871 or judywarren543@msn.com. All calls are strictly confidential. Read more about Rachel's Vineyard online at www.rachelsvineyard.org.

AUGUST
1881 ~ 2021

With gratitude for all we've been given, we ask for God's continued blessings on the parishes and people of our Church family.

Giving thanks for God's blessings

Did you know that this August marks the 140th anniversary of the Diocese of Trenton? In 1881, Pope Leo XIII established the Diocese of Trenton to serve the Catholics of the southern part of New Jersey and named Father Michael J. O'Farrell of New York as its first bishop. At the time, the Diocese had 68 churches, 23 parochial schools and 51 priests spread out across Burlington, Mercer, Monmouth and Ocean Counties, as well as all of the territory that is now part of the Dioceses of Camden and Metuchen. For more on the history of the Diocese, go to dioceseoftrenton.org/our-history, and watch for a special feature in the August issue of The Monitor Magazine and on TrentonMonitor.com.

Catholic social teaching is a central and essential element of our faith! Take time to talk to your kids about how they are called to reach out and to build relationships of love and justice.

Decimonoveno Domingo Ordinario
Agosto 8, 2021

Primera Lectura: 1 Reyes 19, 4-8.

En aquellos tiempos, caminó Elías por el desierto un día entero y finalmente se sentó bajo un árbol de retama, sintió deseos de morir y dijo: “Basta ya, Señor. Quítame la vida, pues yo no valgo más que mis padres”. Después se recostó y se quedó dormido. Pero un ángel del Señor llegó a despertarlo y le dijo: “Levántate y come”. Elías abrió los ojos y vio a su cabecera un pan cocido en las brasas y un jarro de agua. Después de comer y beber, se volvió a recostar y se durmió. Por segunda vez, el ángel del Señor lo despertó y le dijo: “Levántate y come, porque aún te queda un largo camino”. Se levantó Elías. Comió y bebió. Y con la fuerza de aquel alimento, caminó cuarenta días y cuarenta noches hasta el Horeb, el monte de Dios.

Salmo Responsorial

Haz la prueba y verás qué bueno es el Señor.

Bendeciré al Señor a todas horas, no cesará mi boca de alabarlo. Yo me siento orgulloso del Señor, que se alegre su pueblo al escucharlo..

Haz la prueba y verás qué bueno es el Señor.

Proclamemos la grandeza del Señor y alabemos todos juntos su poder. Cuando acudí al Señor, me hizo caso y me libró de todas mis temores. R.

Haz la prueba y verás qué bueno es el Señor.

Confía en el Señor y saltarás de gusto; jamás te sentirás decepcionado, porque el Señor escucha el clamor de los pobres

y los libra de todas sus angustias. R.

Haz la prueba y verás qué bueno es el Señor.

Junto a aquellos que temen al Señor el ángel del Señor acampa y los protege. Haz la prueba y verás qué bueno es el Señor. Dichoso el hombre que se refugia en él. R.
Haz la prueba y verás qué bueno es el Señor.

Segunda Lectura: Ef 4, 30—5, 2.

Hermanos: No le causen tristeza al Espíritu Santo, con el que Dios los ha marcado para el día de la liberación final. Destierren de ustedes la aspereza, la ira, la indignación, los insultos, la maledicencia y toda clase de maldad. Sean buenos y comprensivos, y perdónense los unos a los otros, como Dios los perdonó, por medio de Cristo. Imiten, pues, a Dios como hijos queridos. Vivan amando como Cristo, que nos amó y se entregó por nosotros, como ofrenda y víctima de fragancia agradable a Dios.

Aclamación antes del Evangelio: Jn 6, 51.

R. Aleluya, aleluya.

Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado cielo, dice el Señor; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre.

R. Aleluya.

Evangelio: Jn 6, 41-51.

En aquel tiempo, los judíos murmuraban contra Jesús, porque había dicho: “Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo”, y decían: “¿No es éste, Jesús, el hijo de José? ¿Acaso no conocemos a su padre y a su madre? ¿Cómo nos dice ahora que ha bajado del cielo?”

Jesús les respondió: “No murmuren. Nadie puede venir a mí, si no lo atrae el Padre, que me ha enviado; y a ése yo lo resucitaré el último día. Está escrito en los profetas: Todos serán discípulos de Dios. Todo aquel que escucha al Padre y aprende de él, se acerca a mí. No es que alguien haya visto al Padre, fuera de aquel que procede de Dios. Ese sí ha visto al Padre.

Yo les aseguro: el que cree en mí, tiene vida eterna. Yo soy el pan de la vida. Sus padres comieron el maná en el desierto y sin embargo, murieron. Éste es el pan que ha bajado del cielo para que, quien lo coma, no muera. Yo soy el pan vivo que ha bajado del cielo; el que coma de este pan vivirá para siempre. Y el pan que yo les voy a dar es mi carne para que el mundo tenga vida”.
